

Personal Mention.

Mr. G. E. Simmons, of Branchville, was in town last Friday. Messrs. J. A. Peters and son, of Ehrhardt, were in the city to-day. Miss Minnie Kinard of Florida, is visiting at Mr. R. L. Risher's. Mr. J. H. Kinard, of Folk's Store, was in the city last Saturday. Ham Kirkland, Esq., of Ulmer, spent several days in the city this week. Railroad Commissioner Garrison was in Sumter last week, inspecting the Sumter & Wateree road. Mr. S. H. Wentworth's connection with the Bamberg cotton mill has been severed, and he has gone to Spartanburg for the present. He has not yet decided where he will locate permanently. Lots of lumber is being hauled to town now, and building and improvement is already the order of the day. The Masonic lodge meets at the lodge room in the town hall tomorrow night. Let every member be present. WANTED—From one thousand to five thousand feet of dry ash lumber. D. J. DELK. When is the city council going to take some action in reference to the dogs? We hear complaints almost every day. Secretary Holloway informs us that the prospect for a fine exhibit and large attendance at the State Fair is very flattering. Notwithstanding the bad weather last week, a number of our friends from the country came in and squared up with THE HERALD. Don't forget that the hour for Sunday-school at the Methodist church has been changed to four o'clock in the afternoon. Let everybody attend. Missionary rally day will be observed by the Methodist Sunday-school next Sunday afternoon, and a full attendance is requested at the exercises. The merchants here say they have had the best trade this fall they have known for many years. Lots of goods have been sold in the past few weeks. If you want to buy a typewriter come to THE HERALD office and let us show you the merits of the Blickensderfer—a good machine at a low price. Mince meat at Huggins's, ten cents pound. The sugar cane crop in this county appears to be a large one, and judging from appearances, home-made syrup and hog and hominy will be plentiful this year. The government is requiring all mail matter to be weighed at the post-offices every day for thirty-five days in order to get a basis on which to renew contracts with the railroads. Mr. L. H. Wannamaker has been elected clerk and treasurer of the city of Orangeburg. He was at one time clerk of court of the county, and is fully qualified for the duties of his new position. Bargains at Byrd's in clothing, shoes, and hats. Subscribers continue to throw bouquets at us. Many of them are showing their appreciation of the improvement in the paper in a substantial way, and that's the kind of encouragement we like to have. Beautiful line decorated parlor lamps, from $1 to $2.50 at Brooker's. The people of Bamberg county appreciate a good thing, surely. The way new subscribers are rolling in makes us feel good, and shows that our efforts to print a good newspaper are appreciated by the people. A child can buy goods at J. A. Byrd's as cheap as grown-ups. The board of trustees of Boiling Springs camp ground have offered a reward of one hundred dollars for the apprehension and conviction of the parties who burnt the stand at that place a few weeks ago. Go to J. A. Byrd's for stylish dress goods. The new subscribers continue to pour in, and the best part of it is that they all pay cash in advance. We appreciate this encouragement on the part of our people, and will endeavor to merit their kind words and support. Farmers see Brooker for cane mills before buying. We want a good correspondent at every post office in the county—one who will write us news. We don't want to publish trash. We would be glad to confer with persons who will act in this capacity for us. Write or call to see us at once. Fresh barrel cucumber pickles at Huggins's, ten cents dozen. At the regular meeting of Bamberg lodge, Knight of Pythias, last Monday night, the rank of Knight was conferred upon Dr. F. F. Johnson in fine style. We are of the opinion that the doctor thinks there is no royal road to Knighthood. A full line of notions, and as cheap at Byrd's as anywhere. We have received from Price, McCormick & Co., of New York, a circular containing reprints of telegrams from bankers all over the South, sent in reply to inquiries regarding the cotton crop in this section. All express the opinion that the crop will be short. 10 and 12-piece chamber sets from $2.50 to $12.50. Lovely goods. Don't fail to see them. At Brooker's. A Wilkes county, Ga., farmer has found a new and good use for the top of the cotton plant which comes on too late to mature. He cuts it off and cures it for forage, which he says horses and cattle like to eat freely and thrive on. He advises other planters to do likewise. If you want your money's worth, go to Byrd's. No shoddy stuff sold to any one. We will send THE HERALD and Home and Farm one year for $1.35, or we will send THE HERALD and the three-a-week New York World for $1.05. These rates are strictly cash in advance, and if you want cheap reading matter, now is the time to take advantage of this great offer. A nice cooking stove with ware for $5.50 at Brooker's. Higher priced ones if you want 'em. Again last week, it seems our cotton quotations were too low. We quoted cotton last Thursday at seven cents, and today for 7 1/2. We were too busy to attend to the matter personally, and trusted it to others, but it seems our information was incorrect. Have your measure taken at Byrd's for a tailor-made suit. Nice line of samples, and MOYER CAN FIT YOU. We hope the present price of cotton will not keep our farmers from sowing an abundance of oats and wheat. There is no better way to keep up the prices of cotton than to let it be known that a large acreage will be devoted to oats and wheat. And don't forget about the tobacco crop. Try tobacco too. Library lamps from $2.75 to $8.50 at Brooker's. Everybody invited to see the stock while it is complete. No trouble to show them. Look out, bird hunters! Do you know what the law is? Ten dollars fine for each bird killed before the 1st day of November, and one-half the fine given to the informer. The law makes it the duty of magistrates and constables to see that this law is enforced, just as much so as the dispensary or any other law. Mr. E. W. Seibels, of Columbia, was in town last Monday for the purpose of adjusting the loss on Capt. J. B. Hunter's dwelling. The house was insured in the Delaware Insurance Co., represented here by Col. J. P. Folk, and it is the first loss this company has sustained here. A full adjuster readily agreed to pay the loss, and the building was insured for $400.

FOR SALE.—Twenty-five bushels seed corn. Apply to P. W. Sanfiller. Mr. Johnson Hightower died at his home near Hightower's mill last Wednesday. He was about forty years old, and leaves five children. Best quality dried apples 10 cents per lb. The New Store. "Uncle Joe" Dickinson's host of friends were delighted to see him at the court house yesterday, for the first time since his accident. It is gratifying to know that he is doing so well, but it will be some time before he can discard his crutches. Fresh oat meal at Huggins's, ten cents package. A negro named Cornelius Wroton was killed at a negro frolic near Denmark by another negro named Henry Crum. The funeral was held last Wednesday, and the coroner's jury found that Crum acted in self-defense, and he was not committed by the coroner. Apple, peach, plum, currant, raspberry, or strawberry jelly, 5 lbs. for 25 cents. The New Store. "Uncle Joe" Dickinson has sufficiently recovered from his recent accident as to be out on crutches. His foot and ankle are very much swollen and inflamed, and he cannot bear any weight on it at all. He says that he will be ready to collect taxes next Monday morning, and that his office will be open all day on that day. Those who are anxious to pay their taxes will please take notice. A state of actual war exists to-day between England and the Boers, but it is not known whether the first shot has been fired when we go to press. We have several names on our list as correspondents who have never written us a line since we took charge. We would be glad to hear from them. New crop dried apples at Huggins's, ten cents pound. The Fairfax Enterprise wants a new county, with Fairfax as the county seat. We imagine the old Barnwell will not want to relinquish any more of her territory. Large line lamps, 25c. up, at Brooker's. It makes us feel bad to see the columns of newspapers in other counties overflowing with advertisements and to think of the pitiful support THE HERALD gets from the merchants of Bamberg. Beautiful line of porcelain and china dinner sets at Brooker's. Prices low. Coroner A. W. Bessinger's little grand-daughter picked 1 1/2 pounds of cotton on her ninth birthday. He had a grand-son who performed the same feat on his ninth birthday. Both are the children of Mr. C. W. Bessinger, of Govan.

A Sad Death. Mrs. Louisa M. Miley died at her home near the city, early last Sunday morning. Her death was a shock to many people, as it was not thought she was dangerously ill. The remains were buried Monday morning at the family burying ground above town, and the funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. C. O'Dell. A large concourse of relatives and friends were present, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Mrs. Miley was a sister of Maj. E. R. Hays, and was sixty-five years of age at the time of her death. She had been a widow for many years, and leaves only one child, Mr. W. S. Miley. The deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist church, and her sweetness of disposition and kindness of heart made everybody love her. Truly a good woman has gone to her reward. New Telegraph Office. The Postal Telegraph Company is considering the advisability of opening an office in Bamberg. The line now runs along the old Charleston and Augusta road, about two miles from town. It is said that the contract for the construction of a branch line from this place out to the main line has already been given out, and that it will be built immediately. The office will no doubt be located over Mr. H. C. Folk's store. The Cotton Market. Cotton is selling at 7 cents to 7 1/2 here today, and has sold this week for 7.35. The demand is good, and the receipts for the week are about 600 bales. Pastor Pounded. Rev. W. E. Johnson, the popular pastor of the Baptist church, was the recipient of a magnificent pounding at the hands of the ladies and members of his congregation yesterday afternoon. About four o'clock the ladies began to arrive at his residence, laden with good things for Mr. Johnson and family. This shows the high esteem in which pastor Johnson is held by his people, and their thoughtfulness and kindness is greatly appreciated by him. Text Books. B. F. Johnson & Co., of Richmond, Va., have recently sent us copies of their Hart's Grammars, primary and advanced, and Lee's primary and new school histories. While we have not had time to make a thorough examination of their contents, still a superficial examination convinces us that Lee's history is essentially the one that should be used in Southern schools. Then, too, their books are cheaper than other text books of a similar grade, while the print and binding is better, if anything. Hart's Grammars treat the subject of grammar in an extremely clear and simple manner. They are concise, full, and accurate, and peculiarly adapted to the needs of our schools. They have already been introduced into a number of public and private schools in the South and West, and are being used with the most perfect satisfaction. Lee's Histories have created a furor in educational circles, and we hope and believe they will replace entirely the unfair histories in use heretofore. Tennessee has recently adopted this book for exclusive use for the next five years, and South Carolina would do well to follow her example. This firm also publishes a number of other text books, which are prepared more especially for use in the South and West, and are of a manifestly patriotic and Southern character. As the books are cheaper than the ones now in use, it is good policy to be economical and patriotic at once. S. A. L. Purchasing Agent. Col. F. M. Mixon, it was announced yesterday, has been appointed purchasing agent for the Seaboard Air Line at this point. Col. Mixon will begin the discharge of his duties at once.—The State. Suicide at Denmark. A special dispatch from Denmark to The News and Courier says: Thursday evening about 6 o'clock a strange white man was noticed walking up the Southern Railway track from towards Charleston. Nothing more was seen of him until about 8 o'clock when the agent of the Southern Road at East Denmark went to the office. He went in and was at work on his books. A little later his son and a friend came down, and the friend was requested to go around to the back part of the office and shut in the window blinds. He soon came back and reported that there was a man sitting with his back against the wall with a pistol in his hand. The matter was reported to Mr. G. W. Hightower, the intendant of the town, who promptly came to the depot. An examination was made and the man was found to be stone dead. He had quietly sat down and leaned back against the wall, took out his pistol, put it to his right temple and pulled the trigger. The bullet did its work well. Miss Marie Sontag, who keeps a store just across the street from the depot, says she heard the pistol when it was fired, just after dark. Coroner Bessinger will be notified Friday morning when an inquest will be held, at which time the man may be identified. He looks to be about 40 years old, and is well dressed and about six feet high. The coroner held an inquest Friday over the remains of the stranger. The verdict of the jury was "that the deceased came to his death by a pistol shot wound inflicted by his own hand." No papers were found by which he could be identified. On his right arm, just below the elbow, was tattooed the picture of a woman and the name of "G. Cook." The body was turned over to Undertaker Hightower for interment.

G. and Richard Rhode and Joseph Brabham visited Bamberg this week. The ball at Olar on the night of the 4th instant was a failure, on account of the bad weather. Our farmers are about through gathering cotton, and are now gathering corn. They missed it bad by not holding their cotton. B. G. J. WANTED—Several bright and honest persons to represent us as Managers in this and close by counties. Salary $900 a year and expenses. Straight bona-fide no more, no less salary. Position permanent. It is a mainly office work conducted at home. Reference. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. THE DOMINION COMPANY, Dept. 3, Chicago. School Closing. Editor BAMBERG HERALD:—The closing exercises of the Double Springs School, in Greenville County, taught by one of Bamberg's most promising young men, Mr. J. A. Hunter, son of Capt. J. B. Hunter the clever and popular sheriff of Bamberg county, took place at the school house Saturday night, Sept. 16th, and proved a grand success in every respect. The program consisted of recitations, dialogues, tableaux, instrumental and vocal music, the instrumental being beautifully rendered by the Sandy Flat string band. The execution of the program showed careful preparation on the part of the students, and that Mr. Hunter had given no little thought to the selections and arrangement of the exhibition. The exercises reflected much credit upon both pupils and teacher. The attendance has been estimated at 1,500 people, and the remarkable good order for such a large crowd at such a place goes to show that the exercises were enjoyed very much indeed. The enrollment this year's session has been larger than ever before, which speaks well for the principal. He is a christian gentleman, and a teacher in every sense of the word. We need christian men and women to teach in all of our schools and colleges, in order that people might be educated, as they should be, in heart as well as in mind. Mr. Hunter is now at Furman University pursuing his work diligently, and will soon be prepared to spend his life teaching, working for others. H. M. F. Greenville, S. C., Oct. 4, 1899. There's a long hope while there's a One Minute Cough Cure. "An attack of pneumonia left my lungs in bad shape and I was near the first stages of consumption. One Minute Cough Cure completely cured me," writes Helen McHenry, Bismark, N. D. Gives instant relief.—Bamberg Pharmacy. Mr. Willie Walter's horse fell through a small bridge over a ditch, across the public road at Mr. Perry Steadley's near Ope last week and was considerably hurt. A number of similar ditch bridges are said to be unsafe in other communities. We understand that the Supervisor has already ordered repairs on some and he will doubtless have the others attended to if they are reported directly to him.—Orangeburg Patriot. Chester H. Brown, Kalamazoo, Mich., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cured me of a severe case of indigestion; can strongly recommend it to all dyspeptics." Digests what you eat without aid from the stomach, and cures dyspepsia.—Bamberg Pharmacy. It is remarked that Providence did not raise up George Dewey in order to save the Democratic party. Providence never does anything for the Democratic party, yet nothing, apparently, can kill it.—Springfield Republican. For wounds, burns, scalds, sores, skin diseases and all irritating eruptions, nothing so soothing and healing as DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Mrs. Emma Witt's, Matron, Englewood Nursery, Chicago, says of it: "When all else fails in healing our babies, it will cure."—Bamberg Pharmacy. An American in Constantinople recently ordered wine with his dinner and cigarettes afterwards. The wine he got, he says was made in California, while the cigarettes bore the private mark of a firm in Richmond, Va. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a scientific compound having the endorsement of eminent physicians and the medical press. It "digests what you eat" and positively cures dyspepsia. M. A. Kepron, Bloomington, Tenn., says it cured him of indigestion of ten years' standing.—Bamberg Pharmacy. The United States District Court will meet on the 17th of this month at Greenville. A Destructive Fire. On last Thursday morning the barn, stable, etc., of Mr. D. Boone Fanning, of the Springfield section, was completely destroyed by fire, together with two good horses, one colt, fifteen hundred pounds of fodder, some hay, cotton seed and two bales seed cotton. The fire was discovered about four o'clock in the morning, and as it had been raining all night, it is supposed to have been set. Mr. Fanning's total loss is at least four hundred dollars.—Orangeburg Times and Democrat.
